

Presentation # 17

Presenter: Wally Rzeszutek, Manitoba Hydro

Title: Winnipeg's Waverley West subdivision project

Biography

Wally Rzeszutek is a Senior Distribution Planner for Manitoba Hydro with 24 years of electrical field experience. Before entering Distribution Planning, Wally's career at Manitoba Hydro consisted of 15 years as a Protection and Control Technician commissioning and maintaining generation and transmission systems. In addition, Wally has supported Manitoba Hydro International efforts in providing technical support to electrical utility companies in El Salvador and Nicaragua. He is a graduate of Red River College of Applied Arts, Science and Technology with Diplomas in Electrical and Electronic Engineering Technology. He is a member of the Certified Technicians and Technologists Association of Manitoba (CTTAM).