

Presentation # 4

Presenter: Ron Barbagallo, Energex

Title: Distribution Reliability Planning at ENERGEX

Biography

Ron Barbagallo is a professional power systems engineer with over thirty years experience in the electricity distribution area. He has tertiary qualifications in power engineering and business management and works for ENERGEX Limited which is an electricity distribution utility in South East Queensland, Australia. Ron is presently Group Manager Network Capital Planning. This position is accountable for demand and energy forecasting and also for planning the backbone sub transmission and distribution network for South East Queensland, Australia. Ron has worked in most areas of the electricity distribution. His previous position involved managing ENERGEX's systems operations function and prior to that was responsible for ENERGEX's network maintenance service contracting function.